Introduction

Companies are continually approached with sponsorship proposals offering unique opportunities to network, interact and promote their products and services. As an indication of the size of this market, in 2018, sponsorship spending is predicted to amount to 65.8 billion dollars, up from 62.7 billion a year earlier. Within this rapidly growing and complex ecosystem, it is getting more difficult to select a unique value proposition that suits each company. We at the ICC Academy acknowledge that, and do want to offer you something fresh and something specially for you. Of course, we won't leave behind some of the traditional things (let's be honest, sometimes you have to accept that the wheel has been already invented and it works well), but we do want to discuss what best suits your interests and budget from the new formats of sponsorship we can offer. But before we get there, please allow us to make a proper introduction of ourselves.

Reasons why you will get an attractive ROI from this collaboration

What are the most important reasons for people to attend events? To learn and to network. But people can't learn only by listening. Audiences need to be engaged by giving them opportunities to ask questions and to express their views. And they need a comfortable space to network. Acknowledging that, there are several steps we took to innovate our formats of running events:

- World class knowledge: Going back to the point about why people attend events and why we want to partner with you, we organize events only after making sure we raise topics that are important, topical and will foster a change. We are working with industry experts with remarkable background and experience in the field. However, as much as we are working with many subject matter experts, we want you to be engaged in this planning process by providing your inputs on the agenda and through your expert views in our panel discussions. This is how we think we could contribute to a community together.

▪ Unique and personalized branding: Would you like your company's logo to be on coffee cups, in the elevator, on the floor, a table tennis, in livestream or maybe on the charging station? These are only a few of our ideas how we will make sure that your company stands out, but if you have your own – we will be more than happy to discuss everything from tissues to spaceships (we can't promise everything, but what we can promise is that we will come up with something designed for you)

▪ Brain food: Lunch will be where all guests will be divided in smaller groups by topics of their interest. Meaning that guests will have easier access to their peers and good food will be accompanied by informal and dynamic discussions among the group.

▪ Engaging interactive arena: We will make sure you and our guests can take a deep breath and relax a bit with a cup of coffee in a special area (possibly one branded by you), where you will be able to plan your meetings, network or even play table tennis.

▪ Technology: Within each of our events the Academy will create a community within which guests of the event will be able to communicate and arrange meetings with each other. Mobile app will allow participants to engage in the debates by voting, but for organizers will assist to collect data for further analysis to our sponsors and partners.
